

207 1

Tentative Program: JSAC 1994

FRIDAY, SEPT. 30

Evening reception; no program.

SATURDAY, OCT. 1 FUMIKO to chair

9:00-10:30: Technology, culture, and development

1. Asquith (U of Calgary): Cultural and international influences on modern Japanese science and technology.
2. Ujimoto (U of Guelph): Techno-globalism and human resources development: Japan's role in the Pacific Rim.
3. One discussant; then floor discussion.

10:45-12:15: The changing geo-political role of Japan

4. Langdon (U of BC): Japan and minor powers in Pacific security.
5. Kubota (U of Windsor): Japan's political role in the twenty-first century.
6. One discussant; then floor discussion.

12:30-2:00: Lunch

Keynote speaker will be Professor Konami, who performed the same service at the founding of JSAC in 1987.

2:30-4:30: Political and economic bottlenecks in Japan's development as a global power

A general discussion, begun by ~~three~~<sup>four</sup> panelists:

7. Bedeski (U of Victoria):
8. Daly (York U):
9. Donnelly (U of Toronto):
10. English (Carleton U):

Evening

No events organized for the evening.

SUNDAY, OCT. 2

9:00-10:30: Japan's political evolution

11. Pringsheim (C-J Trade Council): Coalition government in Japan.
12. Kovalio (Carleton U): Victimization of prominent Japanese by Yodayakarow writers.
13. One discussant; then floor discussion.

10:45-12:15: Japan's role in the Pacific Rim

14. Parker/Kershaw (U of Waterloo) & Holroyd (U of Northern BC): The Japan-Canada connection.
15. Bernard (York U): Disentangling past from present: the Asianization of Japan.
16. One discussant; then floor discussion.

12:30-2:00: Lunch, annual business meeting, and adjournment